BIG MEETING AT COLISEUM

ALL PLANS NOW ARRANGED FOR DEMONSTRATION

An announced last week in this paper, the Committee on National Collection on the night of September 19, 1919, preceding the opening of the National Baptist Convention, has the following to make public:

September 3 is to be held as a National Negro Day. All Negro business houses and industries are hereby requested to close their doors and to lavishly decorate in the colors of our country.

In the evening at 7:30 o'clock a grand parade of all civic and fraternal organizations will be held under the direction of Col. Wm. H. Butler.

All the colored bands and orchestras will be in the line of march. All band masters and bands of civic and fraternal organizations that have not been reached by letter, please make known name at Official Headquarters, 3726 Grand Street.

The doors of the Coliseum will be open at 7 p. m. to receive those who can attend. A general admission of 50 cents will be charged. Come early and get best seats, which will include those immediately surrounding the platform.

10 cents for box seats. Persons may secure tickets beforehand from any of the churches, or someone appointed by them, or at Convention Headquarters, 3726 Grand Street.

A trained chorus of 500 voices, singing patriotic airs, will open the grand all night program set started in St. Louis.

"Dr. C. T. Walker, the greatest Negro orator in the world, will be featured as the Black Spurgeon of America."
